Reilly's Barkingmad Shiraz 2004

Tasting Notes

88pts. Wine Enthusiast 3/1/2007

“Reilly’s entry-level Shiraz is a bold wine loaded with brandied fruitcake scents and layered with Christmas pudding and chocolate. It’s close to being over the top, with plenty of late-harvest, dried-fruit character, yet stays lively thanks to heaps of invigorating spice. Drink now. “

87pts, Robert Parker, Jr., The Wine Advocate #161 10/31/05

“...the 2004 Shiraz Barking Mad, a medium-bodied, fruit-driven effort displaying notes of blackberries and currants along with notions of tar and pepper...”

Food Accompaniments

Herbed loin of lamb with vegetable couscous

Winemaker Notes

Rich sweet, ripe blackberry, plum and peppery flavours with a hint of spicy oak.

Low yielding, dry grown Shiraz from an elevated site in Watervale. Hand picking at optimal ripeness and fermentation in open vats has resulted in a full flavoured classic Clare Valley Shiraz.
